CLASSIC REBORN

▲ Michael S. Smith, designer of the Obamas' private White House quarters, evoked the style of timeless faux bois in his 10-piece Arbre Collection for Brown Jordan. Available in three finish options, the cast-aluminum outdoor line includes a lounge chair and coffee table (above). brownjordan.com

WARM PATINA

▲ Dedon has introduced Tibbo, its first collection in teak. Designed by London-based Barber & Osgerby, the line is hand-crafted in the Philippines with wood sourced from sustainable plantations. It features tables, armchairs with curved backs and woven-fiber seats (above), benches and lounge chairs. At Dedon in the Washington Design Center; dedon.de

GO WEST

► Pindler has introduced the new Pendleton by Sunbrella collection, which combines 44 patterns inspired by Native American motifs and the beauty of the Southwest with the latest in high-performance outdoor fabric. Resistant to fading, stains and mold, the easy-care textiles are available at Pindler in the Washington Design Center. pindler.com; sunbrella.com
