SOCIAL FABRIC

Entertain without fear with Pindler's recently released Sunbelievable collection, a line of vibrantly colored indoor-outdoor textiles. Woven from solution-dyed acrylic and polyester, the soft-to-the-touch fabric is fade-proof and easy to clean, so it's impervious to those occasional spills. (Sangria and margaritas, anyone?) It's also hard to beat Pindler's track record: The company's textile experts have spent more than 70 years perfecting the art of fabric design and development. $88-$152 per yard, 1250 Slocum St., Ste. 715, Dallas; 5120 Woodway Drive, Ste. 4021, Houston; pindler.com

LOUNGE ACT

It's a brand built on the breezy attitude of coastal California, so it was only a matter of time before Serena & Lily debuted the Capistrano outdoor daybed. The Sausalito-based company turned to its own Avalon bed for inspiration, reimagining the airy design for a porch or patio using a handwrapped resin that mimics rattan. A French mattress with piped edges and button tufting looks as polished as an indoor lounge; but offers the durability of Sunbrella fabric designed to withstand the elements. $2,498, serenaandlily.com
